

Dormer Bedroom Windows:

The new windows are to be traditional casement windows with Simlite double glazing units and using. The windows are to be white painted softwood with hardwood cills. All timber is to be pressure treated.

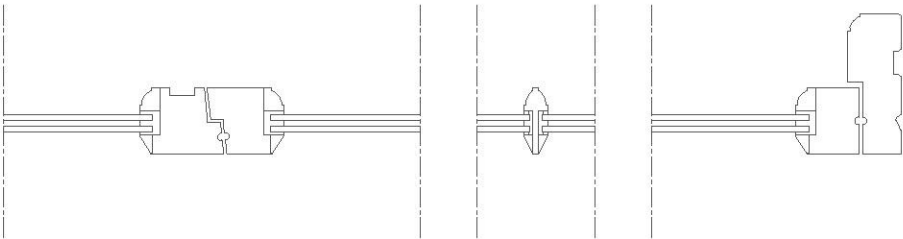

The paint finish is to be micro porous finish allowing the timber to breathe.

The glazing is to be 4mm standard glass, 4mm air gap and 4mm toughened glass.

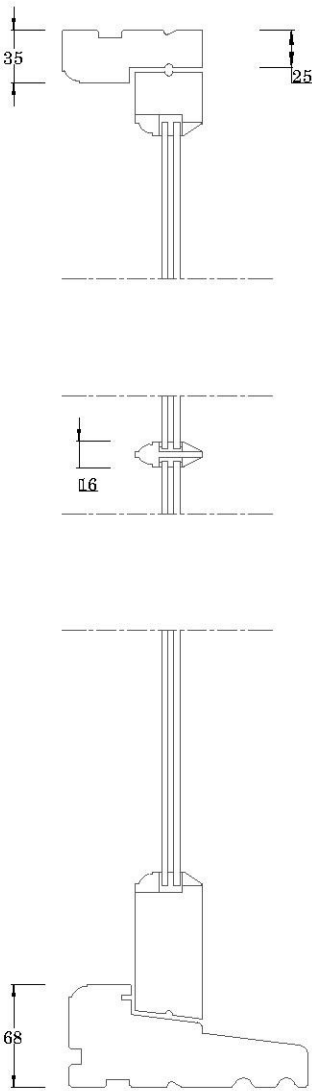

Glazing bars are to be fitted with putty.

Ironmongery to be polished brass hinges, locking stays and locking handles. Polished brass flush bolt fitted into frame top and bottom of fixed sash.

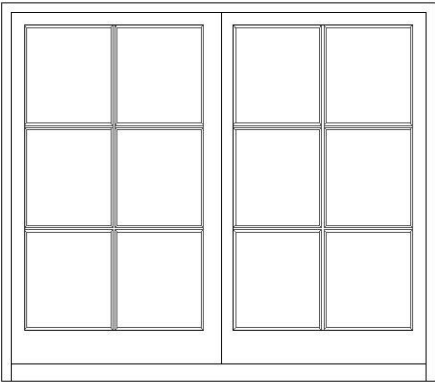

Flying mullion arrangement to aid means of escape from the bedroom

Typical Horizontal Section

Typical Vertical Section

Dormer Bedroom Windows
Scale 1:20