

Chief Executive

Could you be our community champion?

Would you like the opportunity to lead a dynamic and entrepreneurial charity? Do you relish a challenge with lots of fun thrown into the mix? Can you contribute and help lead the geographic expansion of the charity's educational programmes across the south east? If yes, read on!

Inspire Schools / KM Charity Team is looking for a full time CEO to lead the organisation into its 20th anniversary. With expansion into London, Sussex and East Anglia to add to our strong base in Kent, we need a strong leader to help us make our plans a reality.

The ideal candidate will either have a strong grant fundraising background, or experience with raising funds through corporate fundraising. You will have responsibility for helping to grow the business, so must have good business development acumen and love working with people.

Inspire Schools / KM Charity Team delivers award-winning educational programmes to schools in the South East, amazing awards events, and adrenaline challenge events that raise over £100k each year for charities and good causes.

- £40,000 - £45,000 annual salary. Full time position.
- Flexi hours.
- Six weeks holiday per annum.
- Based at charity's offices in Whitstable.

Does this sound like a challenge you would like to get involved with? To apply for the job pack go to the www.kmcharityteam.co.uk/vacancies.

- Closing date: Noon on Friday 16 August 2019.
- Interview date: Friday, 23 August, 2019.

Inspire Schools and the KM Charity Team is an independent charity working to support the charitable and education sectors in collaboration with the KM Group.
