Hi Katy

Thanks for your email – happy to advise that no archaeological measures are required in this instance.

Many thanks
Ben

Hi Ben.

Sorry to spring this one on you. I'm trying to clear some backlog for a colleague and was going to issue this one but noted that archaeology have not been consulted. You (the team) were consulted on the original 2017 application but no comments were received on that one so it may be that you have no interest.

Before I go ahead and issue an approval can you please let me know if you're interested in the site or not. I need to have it issued by Monday 19th at the latest.

Kind regards,

Katy Claw
Planning Officer
