NOTE FOR GUIDANCE ABOUT ADVERTISEMENT APPEALS

The right to appeal

1. You have a right to appeal against the Local Planning Authority's-
 - (a) refusal of consent for an advertisement;
 - (b) grant of consent for an advertisement subject to a condition with which you are dissatisfied;
 - (c) failure to issue a decision on an application within a specific time (namely 8 weeks from the date the application is formally acknowledged or such longer period you may have agreed in writing with the Council), provided the Council has not given you notice that they have declined to determine your application under the provisions of section 70A of Town and Country Planning Act 1990; or
 - (d) "discontinuance notice" requiring you to remove an advertisement, or stop using an advertisement site.

The appeal is made to the Planning Inspectorate on behalf of the Secretary of State.

2. All advertisement appeals and supporting documents in England must reach the Planning Inspectorate within 8 weeks from the date of receipt of the Local Planning Authority's decision notice (or for 'failure' appeals, within 8 weeks of the date by which they should have decided the application). If the appeal is against a discontinuance notice, it must reach the Inspectorate before the date the notice takes effect. To appeal you should complete the official appeal form. Ask for form PINS PF08 for your appeal. Please read the notes for guidance carefully before completing the form. Form PINS PF08 can be obtained from the following address:-

Initial Appeals
The Planning Inspectorate
2 The Square
Temple Quay
Bristol
BS1 6PN

Helpline: 0117 372 6372

Appeal forms can be downloaded from the Planning Inspectorate's website www.planning-inspectorate.gov.uk along with general guidance notes.

3. On completion of the form it should be returned to Planning Inspectorate at the above address, with a copy to the Local Planning Authority against whose decision you are appealing. Please make sure you keep copies for your own reference.
4. From the outset of an appeal you should give precise grounds of appeal. This enables the Local Planning Authority in their written statement to answer the relevant points and thus avoid unnecessary delays. You will be given the opportunity to respond to their representations.
5. The available appeal procedures are:
 - (a) by written representations which you and the Local Planning Authority make, followed by
 - (i) an unaccompanied site inspection of the appeal site; or
 - (ii) no site inspection, but with consideration of photographs of the appeal site.
 - (b) by a hearing of the parties' oral representations, and (usually) an unaccompanied site-inspection of the appeal site, which are then reported to the Secretary of State. You should note that, if you opt for this procedure, you may be liable for an award of the Planning Authority's appeal costs (DOE Circular 8/93) against you if you are found to have behaved "unreasonably" in the appeal proceedings. Further advice is given in DOE Circular 05/00.
