Jake's sibling rivalry

Jackson wants more hunger

By Thomas Reeves

Folkestone forward Jake Hutchinson is not the only member of his family in goalscoring form.

Hutchinson got the winner in promotion-chasing Isthmian Premier Invicta's 2-1 victory over surprise strugglers Billericay on Saturday as they bounced back from last mid-week's 2-1 away defeat to Hashtag United - a first league loss of this campaign.

His weekend strike made it six goals in seven matches in all competitions for the 23-year-old summer signing. But older brother Isaac Hutchinson, on loan at League 2 Cheltenham from Bristol Rovers, also knows where the net is.

The midfielder, 25, got the FA Cup tie's only goal in the Robins' 1-0 first-round triumph against Bradford on Saturday. It was his fourth goal this season, having scored inside two minutes on his debut in a 1-0 win against Accrington Stanley.

"I'm enjoying a bit of a run," said Jake. "It's the same for my brother who, since he joined Cheltenham, has got into a similar vein of form."

"We have had a couple of years that we have been playing for clubs where it's been difficult, where we don't really have that trust of the management."

"I've had it before and my brother definitely has where you have that weight on your shoulders and, as soon as you do something wrong, everyone's on top of you. But we're both at clubs where we have got stability."

Perhaps unsurprisingly, there is a bit of sibling rivalry.

"There's a bit of friendly brotherly rivalry," said Jake, whose dad, Tobi, has managed Eastbourne United.

"We're always out to outscore each other and there's a bit of talk about it in our family chat."

"To have that, it's always good."

Hutchinson got Folkestone's second goal against Billericay at Cheriton Road just after the hour, minutes after former Gillingham and Dartford striker Liam Nash cancelled out midfielder Dean Rance's first-half strike.

Hutchinson reflected: "It was a really good win, especially after the disappointment of Tuesday night."

"To bounce back against Billericay - who are not doing the best this season but have got a lot of players that should be playing at the level above - was really good."

"We knew they could hurt us, given the chance. The goal they scored came from a bit of poor defending from us, really, but we were pretty much in control for most of the game."

Hutchinson struck as he headed a delivery by recently-recruited defender Ike Orji past Sam Donkin.

He said: "It was a brilliant ball from Ike. I said to a few people afterwards it was a cross, which is a striker's dream."

"It was one you don't have to do a lot with. Ike has come in and settled into the group really well, even though he's not been with us that long."

It's been a topsy-turvy campaign for Hutchinson, who has only recently rediscovered his scoring touch after a barren spell following his goal in the opening-day 1-1 draw at Chichester.

"It's always nice to score," he added. "For it to be a match-deciding goal, that's even better."

"It's been a bit of a weird season. In pre-season, I thought I did really well and I scored in the first game of the season - but then went seven games without scoring."

"You do wonder if you're ever going to score. But now I've got six in seven games again."

Hutchinson is relishing the chance to work alongside 31-year-old former Charlton, Ipswich and AFC Wimbledon frontman Joe Pigott.

He admitted: "I don't think anyone thought Joe would end up at Folkestone this season after where he has been for most of his career but, obviously, we're buzzing to have him."

"For myself as a younger player, I can pick his brains a little bit. He has been brilliant with it. He's really open.

"You see another striker come in and - especially when it's someone of his quality - you can think 'Oh no, that's my place in the team gone'. But you've got to think more 'Right, he's someone who will help us as a team'."

"It's about strengthening the squad, that's all it does, and we have got a lot of games to play between now and Christmas."

There is another familiar face for Hutchinson at Folkestone now in Adam Lovatt.

The pair played together at Tonbridge on respective loans in 2021, with 26-year-old midfielder Lovatt making his debut for Jay Saunders' side against Billericay.

"I played with Adam at Tonbridge," Hutchinson said.

"It was a really good debut for him. A few in the squad already knew him, as well as the gaffer, Lloyd Blackman and Tom Parkinson."

"I think Parky played with him at Tonbridge. He's another player that really boosts our squad."

Invicta, who were due at Welling on Tuesday, visit Pottery Bar on Saturday and host Cray Wanderers next Tuesday.

Ira Jackson questioned Hythe's desire after a sixth successive league defeat left them in the bottom two.

The Cannons' Southern Counties East Premier Division struggles continued in a 4-2 loss at Holmesdale on Saturday.

Steadman Callender cancelled out the hosts' opener but Town fell 4-1 behind before an injury-time consolation from Armani-Jordan Martin.

Hythe have lost 11 of their last 12 league games since starting the season with two wins and a draw, and boss Jackson knows things have to improve.

They have progressed in the FA Vase and Challenge Cup but their league form is a major concern.

"I've given this group of players everything they could possibly ask for from a club, and more, and somehow they can't muster the desire to win a game of football and the focus to do the basic things," said Jackson.

"Over the weeks, you lose a game and it's 'OK, everybody loses a game' but when you consistently lose, you're expecting there to be some form of response within players that they don't want to lose again."

"But that doesn't necessarily seem to be there."

"Ultimately, I've come here to help the club and rebuild and change things and make things different or better than they were last year."

"They're definitely different but they're not better in terms of the results."

"There's loads of things you can coach, loads of things you can improve but, ultimately, the things we are losing games on are nothing to do with coaching."

"They're just basics of football that you should have as a seven-year-old, eight-year-old, nine-year-old."

Hythe host Burnham in the FA Vase second round at Reachfields this Saturday.

■ Lydd were beaten 3-1 at home to SE Dons in Southern Counties East Division 1 last Saturday, Harry Byrne with a late consolation from the penalty spot. The Lydders visit Halls on Sunday.
