TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

Application Number: 25/1924/FH

Proposal: Erection of a two storey rear extension with the addition of a ground floor window in East elevation.

Site Location: 83 KINGFISHER AVENUE, HYTHE, CT21 6QT

DECISION: REFUSED in accordance with the planning application and plans.

REFUSAL REASONS

- 1 The proposed rear extension, by virtue of its size, scale, bulk, mass, proportions, roof line and design, would appear as an overly dominant, visually obtrusive addition to the host dwelling that would relate poorly to the rear façade and would be highly visible from the public realm in Herons Way. As a result the extension would have a detrimental impact on the streetscene, resulting in an uncharacteristic addition that would fail to make a positive contribution to the prevailing pattern of development in the wider area. The proposal would therefore be contrary to policies HB1 and HB8 of the adopted Places and Policies Local Plan 2020.

NOTIFICATION TO APPLICANT

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or the grant of it, subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990. As this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder application, if you want to appeal, then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of the notice. Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN or online at www.gov.uk/government/organisations/planning-inspectorate. The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the Local Planning Authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions it imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provision of a development order and to any directions given under the order. In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the Local Planning Authority based its decision on a direction given by him.

PURCHASE NOTICES

If either the Local Planning Authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor can he render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which had been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the District Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interests in the land in accordance with the provisions of Chapter I of Part 6 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
